William Denton Moulton, son of Thomas and Sarah Denton Moulton, was born in Irchester, England, July 17, 1843. His family joined the Church when he was young, just before sailing time. After six weeks sailing soon for America. A brother, Charles Endowment at sea, they crossed the country by train and handcart with the Captain James G. Willey 24, 1865, and they were sealed for eternity arriving in Salt Lake City on November 9, 1856, suffering with cold because was 22 he married Mary Lavina Lec. July in Provo until 1860, then moved to Heber William was a member of the Blackhaw Alma. was born on board the "Thornton army after growing to manhood. in the of the late date of arrival. December 15, 1868. In June, 1868, he, with many others, went to Plorence. Nebraska, with ox teams and wagons, to meet LDS immigrants. It was a long trip, because they had to wait six weeks for 700 Danish people who were late arriving at Florence. His group saw the last rails laid on the Platte River railroad bridge and the first train of the Union Pacific to cross over it on July 15, 1868. The year 1869 was a bad one for crops and living conditions were hard, so William worked, hauling ties for the railroad which was coming into Utah then.

The first home for William and his wife was a little log cabin. A few years later be bought a ranch nine miles north of Heber, on which he built a large rock house, and that section was named Moultonville. A branch of the Church was established and he became presiding elder. He secured a contract to supply beef, milk and butter to the boarding houses of the Ontaric mine at Park ployment on the ranch. Seven years after his marriage to Mary Lavina Lee, he took Mary Ann Davis as City. He built up a prosperous business and
